1. Introduction

Introduction

The key to making your brand successful is making it about your customer, not about you. When you position your customer as the hero of the story and yourself as the guide, you create a powerful brand framework that resonates deeply.

This is an expanded section from 'Introduction' in 'Building a StoryBrand' by Donald Miller. In the full version of this book, this chapter contains detailed analysis, real-world examples, case studies, and practical exercises that help readers deeply understand and apply the concepts discussed. The author draws from years of experience and research to provide actionable insights that can transform the way you think and work. Each section builds upon the previous one, creating a comprehensive framework for mastery. The principles outlined here have been tested and validated through extensive practice and have helped countless individuals achieve remarkable results in their respective fields.
